

Tenney Handbook

Fire Protection Systems

The fire protection system includes sophisticated fire/smoke detection equipment. To ensure that our equipment is functioning properly, we test the fire alarms monthly. Fire alarm testing occurs the first Friday of each month during non-business hours. An announcement will be made over the fire alarm intercom system prior to testing.